Nathaniel J. Palzer, Esq.,
120 Broadway,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Palzer:-

In line with our 'phone talk this A. M., if you recall Sipel in his statement fixes certain incidents as occurring on September 15th, 1922 (Friday) by reason of the fact that the barn on a neighboring farm was burned on that night. I advised in one of my later reports that the barn in question was located on Max Marinov's farm at Middlebush and that Phillip H. Bruskin the insurance agent was going to secure a copy of the proof of loss presented by Marinov.

Bruskin now advises that he thinks if we take the matter up ourselves, we will get better results. I am therefore attaching a memo which he gave me and would thank you if you have the matter followed up at New York.

What we want to secure is proof of claim presented by Max Marinov for fire damage to his barn at Middlebush, N. J. on or about September 15, 1922. The loss was covered by Washington Underwriter's Policy, No 20059 issued February 26, 1922. Phillip H. Bruskin of New Brunswick was the local agent.

Mr. Bruskin advises that the Washington

Underwriters have been taken over by the National Liberty Insurance Company at 709 Sixth Avenue, (corner 41st St.) New York City and that if we send a man there to see
Mr. Ikiev, he will furnish the information.

Respectfully yours,

David Thompson.
